

THE DAILY BULLETIN.

MONDAY EVE., APRIL 30, 1883.

Soon in the circle of saw dust,
The clown will be telling his jokes,
And father and mother and babies,
Will laugh at the fun that he pokes.
The girl on the calico ring horse,
Her legs will be tossing in air,
And all the bald heads in the country,
You'll find very certainly there.

A PART of the iron for the street railway arrived Saturday night from the Lawrence Mills, at Ironton, Ohio.

The great war elephant Xerxes, the heaviest in captivity, is with S. H. Barrett & Co.'s menagerie and circus.

Mr. J. C. PICKETT's little son, who was severely injured by falling from a coal shed a few days ago, is improving rapidly.

The steamer Abe McDonald broke some of her machinery at this place Saturday. She returned to Cincinnati the next day.

MAYSVILLE is soon to be connected with Cincinnati by telephone. The line will be established by way of Carlisle, Paris and Cynthiana.

The Unicorn of Holy Writ is with S. H. Barrett & Co.'s mammoth menagerie and circus, and will be in Maysville, on Monday, May 7th.

SUBSCRIBERS to the DAILY BULLETIN are requested to pay the carrier promptly every Saturday afternoon. Many of them have failed to do so.

FARMERS having stock to sell have no cause now to complain of prices. Cattle, hogs, horses, mules and sheep are in demand, and at very profitable prices.

The hemp market at Lexington is reported brisk and the prices advancing. A good quality has sold as high as $4.80 per cwt., and at $5 in Woodford county.

The German Relief Society, of Maysville, will give a ball at Washington Hall, on Monday evening, May 14th, to which the admission price will be one dollar.

The First National Bank has received a lot of the new nickel coins. They are similar to the one lately withdrawn from circulation except that the word "cents" has been added below the Roman numeral.

CONCERTS, consisting of music, recitations and dialogues, will be given at the Chester M. E. Church, South, on the evenings of the 11th and 12th of May, for the benefit of the said church. These concerts will be highly entertaining.

The patent spindle invented by Mr. Jaquith, of this city, is used at the cotton mills to make number forty-eight yarn, and is run at the astonishing speed of 17,000 revolutions a minute. It is said to be the fastest running spindle in the world.

Prof. J. D. PICKETT, Superintendent of Public Instruction has been appointed to deliver an address before the National Educational Association at Washington City in July next, on the "Best system of schools under State control, with special reference to the peculiar circumstances of the Southern States."

Rev. S. H. CHESTER, of Lowersville, N. C., has been invited to take charge of the Southern Presbyterian Church of this city. He has been preaching here for several weeks and the congregation are much pleased with him. He left this morning for North Carolina to make arrangements to remove to Maysville.

Says the Bracken Chronicle: A school teacher asserts that scholars who have access to newspapers at home outstrip those in their studies who do not see the papers, becoming better readers and spellers, better grammarians and write the best compositions, besides learning geography and history quicker.

The owners of the Maysville Cotton Mills are making a number of important improvements which are required by their large and growing business. The machinery on the first floor of the mill is to be removed to the old store building and operated by an endless wire from the main building. Machinery is to be provided for the manufacture of fancy wrapping twine, clothes lines, picture cord, seine twine and other articles, which are to be made in large quantities. When these improvements are made it will, probably, be the best equipped mill in the country.

SUICIDE.

Louis Traxel Ends his Life by Cutting His Throat With a Razor—Mental Aberration the Cause.

Sunday morning, about eight o'clock, Mr. Louis Traxel, the machinist at the cotton mills put an end to his life by cutting his throat with a razor, at his residence on Second Street, below Short. He had been unwell for several weeks and was subject to fits of despondency, caused as his friends believe, by an injury to his head received some seven or eight years ago during the fire at Baldwin & Co.'s plow works. He was in a well at the time, looking after a pump when a brick from a falling wall struck him on the head, causing injuries from which he had never fully recovered. It was in one of these spells of despondency that the rash act was committed.

He was forty-two years of age, a sober, industrious and honest man and held the respect and confidence of his employers. His wife and six children survive him. He was a member of the Order of Odd Fellows and the German Relief Society, and will be buried under their auspices tomorrow afternoon at two o'clock, from the German Church, after services by the Rev. Wm. Blesse.

The verdict of the Coroner's jury is as follows:

We, the jury summoned by the Coroner of Mason county, to view the body of Louis Traxel, deceased, find as our verdict that the said Louis Traxel came to his death by a wound in the throat, inflicted with a razor by his own hand, while laboring under temporary insanity. The said Traxel was about forty-two years old, was a resident of Second Street below Short, Maysville, Mason county, Ky., was a machinist by occupation and had been in ill health for several weeks. This we believe to be a true verdict according to the evidence.

PERSONALS.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas M. Green are in the city.

Mr. John McIlvaney is at Cincinnati this week attending the Dramatic Festival.

Dr. Cartmell and family will remove to the residence soon to be vacated by Mrs. R. Albert.

Mr. Alonzo Winn, who has been the assistant superintendent at the cotton mills for several months, has returned to his home in New Hampshire.

Fire at Ripley.

A fire occurred at Ripley Saturday about noon that proved very destructive. It originated in a stable near Market street and destroyed that building, a lime house and ice house and damaged the buildings at a wood and coal yard, besides consuming all the fencing and out-houses in the locality between Second and Third streets.

The following under the title "A Certain Cure for Love," was written by the mother of one of our well known citizens about sixty years ago: "Take eight ounces of Consideration, half the quantity Indifference, ten grains of Ingratitude, six scruples of Patience, two handfuls of Employment and four months Absence. Mix them together with the constant conversation of a rival. To these add as much Discretion as nature hath allotted you; toll them together without intermission till a third part be consumed; cool them with a few sighs, and spread it over all the thoughts of your lover's imperfections and apply the plaster warm to your heart. Be sure you do not take it off till it comes off of itself. If this fails your case is desperate." The recipe is a good one and has lost none of its virtue by age.

ABERDEEN ITEMS.

Mrs. Robert Brookover has returned from Cincinnati, accompanied by Miss Lida Hancock, a pretty blonde of most fascinating manners of Newport, Ky.

Mr. George Schiltz is greatly improving his residence by a beautiful veranda and handsomely painted. When completed it will be one of the finest residences on Front street.

Dr. Moore is improving his property on the pike occupied by Mr. Mefford, by new fences and repainting, giving everything the appearance of a new place.

The social given at Dr. Heaton's for the benefit of the Methodist Church was a grand success in every respect.

Sweetheart, do you object to this cigar smoke? Ah, no, dear, the fragrance is delicious. Why, dear, your eyes sparkle like champagne. Well, sweetheart, I indulged in a glass, for I knew your weakness for sparkling eyes. Why, dear, I have no objections. Dear, I am entirely out of pin money. Why, sweetheart, I spent my cigar money all to-night, to procure champagne to have my eyes sparkle, my little wife. I shall never forget your weakness in our courtship days for sparkling eyes, and I shall always gratify that weakness.

Some people have very peculiar ideas of a man's hat. If a young lady is not popular among gentlemen that is not sufficient evidence to condemn her as a man hater. The trouble is the majority of ladies spoil the gentlemen by their gushing overtures. Hence, when a young lady waits to have her company sought, instead of seeking, she is set down as a man hater, and those who seek the gentleman are considered man lovers.

Mr. Charles Sutton has one of the best conducted meat stores for order and cleanliness. He keeps choice meat and his agreeable manners have won him many customers.

HIPPOA.

MESSRS. WINDHORST & BLUM have just received a very choice lot of spring and summer cassimeres, which they are prepared to make to order in the latest styles at very low prices. The public is invited to call and see the stock. Money can be saved by so doing.

Two men were wrangling in front of the City Hall the other day, when one of them called out, "I tell you I don't owe you no five dollars!" "I say you do!" "And I won't pay it!" "Then I'll sue you!" At this point a pedestrian halted, and inquired of one: "Do you honestly owe him?" "Not a penny, sir!" "And you will sue him for five dollars?" He asked of the other: "I will!" "Give him seven dollars," continued the pedestrian to the debtor—"give him seven and be glad to. If he sues, he's sure to get a verdict, and your expenses will be at least ten dollars. Give him seven, and be thankful that you are beating two lawyers, a justice, and a constable, six jurymen and two witnesses out of their fees." A satisfactory settlement was made on the spot.—Detroit Free Press.

A New Orleans dude at the opera stood and leisurely surveyed the immense audience before divesting himself of his top-coat. Perhaps it was the light weight of the new spring garment that deceived him. Anyhow, he inadvertently took off the overcoat and undercoat together, and laid them over the back of his chair. The sight of the dandy in his shirt sleeves and vest seemed to catch the eyes of every body in the house instantly, and a general giggle deepened quickly into unanimous haw-haws. So much of shirt bosom is exposed in the prevailing style of evening dress that he naturally did not at once discover his undue exhibition of linen, and he was seated before he was aware that he was the cause of all the noise. Then his studied equanimity was for once destroyed. His struggling haste to pull his swallow-tail coat out of the other, and to put it on, was as comical as the rest of his mishap.

Resolutions of Respect.

At a meeting of the Directors of the Mason County Building and Saving Association held April 27, 1883, the following minute was adopted:

This Board records with sadness the decease on the 22nd of April, 1883, of our associate, R. Albert, who has been a director in this association since its organization.

He was the moving spirit in the organization of the first Building Association established in this city, and was elected its first President, the duties of which position he discharged with such fidelity that he was at each annual election during its entire existence of eight years continued in its place.

In his intercourse with the members of this Board he was courteous; in his attention to the interests of the Association he was faithful, and in his judgment in the management of its affairs he was intelligent.

It was ordered that the Secretary of this Association transmit to the afflicted family of the deceased a copy of this minute with the assurances of our sincere sympathy, and that a copy be furnished the city papers for publication.

Ayer's Cathartic Pills are the best medicine that can be employed to correct irregularities of the stomach and bowels. Gentle, yet thorough, in their action, they cure constipation, stimulate the digestive organs and the appetite, and cleanse, build up, and strengthen the system.

The "constantly tired-out" feeling so often experienced is the result of impoverished blood and consequent enfeebled vitality. Ayer's Sarsaparilla feeds and enriches the blood, increases the appetite, and promotes digestion of the food and the assimilation of its strengthening qualities. The system being thus invigorated, the feeling rapidly changes to a grateful sense of strength and energy.
